

Bulk universality for sparse complex matrices

Abstract:

We consider large random matrices with independent complex entries whose moments decay slowly in the dimension. In particular, this model contains sparse matrices whose entries are the product of a Bernoulli random variable and an independent complex random variable. We show that the local eigenvalue statistics in the bulk are universal, based on so-called multi-resolvent local laws.